We Gather Together. We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing; He chastens and hastens His will to make known; The wicked oppressing now cease from distressing; Sing praises to His Name; He forgets not His own. Beside us to guide us, our God with us joining, Ordaining, maintaining His kingdom divine; So from the beginning the fight we were winning;

We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing
He chastens and hastens his will to make known
The wicked oppressing now cease from distressing
Sing praises to his name, he forgets not his own
Beside us to guide us, our God with us joining
Ordaining, maintaining his kingdom divine
So from the beginning the fight we were winning Thou, Lord, were at our side, all glory be thine!

“We Gather Together” is a victory hymn to sing when “the wicked oppressing now cease from distressing.” The old Dutch Calvinists were thinking of their Spanish oppressors when they wrote these words, but the principle holds true for the people of God in all ages. The victory we win—whether physical or spiritual—only comes because ...
