Nightshade (Gatiss novel) - Wikipedia

Doctor Who: Nightshade by Mark Gatiss was an incredibly dark adventure with a most beloved character (in a version I'm entirely unfamiliar with) and his companion (again I have no history with Ace). Centered around a small village, The Doctor and Ace are up against a foe that is ruthless in its carnage and hunger.

Continuing my journey through the Doctor Who New Adventures series of books, I came to Mark Gatiss's Nightshade - a book which, as well as being a new adventure for the Seventh Doctor and Ace, also serves as a pleasant homage to the classic Quatermass serials of the 1950s. Plus, it's set at Christmastime, which is a nice bonus.
