Stanley Featherstonehaugh Ukridge - Wikipedia

Written 90 years ago, Ukridge, as is all of Wodehouse, is timeless. There has never been another writer in the English language so adept at gentle, winning farce.

Description: The ten stories in Ukridge revolve around Stanley Featherstonehaugh Udrigges none-too-successful schemes to make some money. After ingesting about forty full meals from that master literary chef P.G. Wodehouse, I finally found the character Ukridge placed before me, and was treated to a wonderful ten course meal of short stories.
